West Virginia Lobbyist Registration 2009-2010

General information:

This form (LRS-1) is to be used for lobbyist registration for calendar years 2009-2010. Your registration, when approved, will last until December 31, 2010, unless terminated in writing prior to that time. Lobbyists are required to re-register by January of each odd numbered year.

Registration requirements:

Registration may be done by mail or in person at the WV Ethics Commission office, 210 Brooks St, Suite 300, Charleston WV 25301. Forms submitted by facsimile machine will not be processed. Please note that lobbying is not permitted until your registration with the Ethics Commission is complete and all of the following items are submitted.

1. A completed Lobbyist Registration Statement along with credit card information or a check payable to the WV Ethics Commission in the amount of $100.00 for initial registration fee.
2. A recent 2" x 2" passport-type photograph of yourself, suitable for publication in a Directory of Registered Lobbyists published annually and for use in creating the Lobbyist Identification Credential issued upon registration. The photo can be submitted electronically to lucy.a.suchy@wv.gov
3. A completed Statement / Notice of Representation for each employer identified on the Lobbyist Registration Statement. A registration fee of $100.00 is required for each representation in addition to the $100.00 base lobbyist registration fee.

We will process registrations within 24 hours of receipt and notify you in writing when your registration is complete. Incomplete applications will be returned and lobbying privileges delayed.

Training Requirement:

All lobbyists must complete required training at least once per registration cycle. Lobbyists registering in West Virginia for the first time must complete initial training prior to lobbying by completing written materials provided by the Ethics Commission and then attend a formal training class provided by the Ethics Commission within 90 days of registering as a lobbyist. A training DVD is available for those lobbyists unable to attend training classes in person.

Reporting - general information:

The Lobbyist must report lobbying activities and expenditures three times a year as follows.

May 15 - covers the months of January, February, March, April

September 15 - covers the months of May, June, July, August

January 15 - covers the months of September, October, November, December

All due dates are strictly enforced and fines of $10.00 per day levied for late filing. (Maximum $250) Reporting via facsimile is not permitted. The necessary reporting forms are mailed in advance of the reporting dates to the mailing address indicated on your registration form. Please notify us promptly of any mailing address changes or corrections. All forms and reports are also available on the Ethics Commission Website www.wvethicscommission.org

Changes in Status:

The law requires lobbyists to report any changes of lobbying status within one week. You must file an Amended Lobbyist Registration Statement reflecting the deletion or addition of any employer or other changes in registration status. If you wish to terminate your status as a lobbyist you are required to file a Notice of Termination within one week.

All forms for reports, changes and additions may be obtained by contacting the WV Ethics Commission and are available on line on the Commission's web site www.wvethicscommission.org . For more information call (304) 558-0664 or contact Lobbyist Registrar, Lucy Suchy at lucy.a.suchy@wv.gov.
